

solent
students'
union

ELECTIONS

Election rules

Participants

Participants in an election must treat all students and staff with respect, behave in a professional, honest and ethical way and comply with the Students' Union Articles of Association and Bye-Laws.

Participants in an election must not; make personal attacks against candidates and campaigns, breach Solent University rules or break the Law.

Nominations

1. All nominations shall be submitted via the electronic form by the nomination deadline as set by the returning officer.

2. The Returning Officer (RO) will only accept nominations from current students with valid student numbers who are full members of the Union.

3. No member may stand for more than one position in the same election – posts within the elections/different elections debacle.

4. A candidates' briefing will be held following the close of nominations. At this meeting the Deputy Returning Officer (DRO) will provide a campaign rules briefing and other relevant guidelines for those involved.

Campaigning

5. Campaigners are responsible for the actions of their campaign teams. They must take all reasonable steps to ensure that their supporters' actions comply with the campaign rules at all times and must be able to demonstrate this in the event of a complaint against them.

6. Campaigners may only alter, move or remove their own campaign materials, SU staff remove materials once the voting process has finished.

7. In the case of activity groups resources are deemed to be owned by the membership of the group so committee approval is required in order to allow use of the resources.

8. Campaigners must not interfere with voters in any way once they have begun or are in the act of voting.

9. No Campaigning may take place in the library.

10. Financial or materially valuable bribes must not be offered as part of any campaign.

11. No campaigning may take place near polling stations.

12. Candidates and campaigners may not:

i) Attempt to force, coerce or in any way intimidate students, particularly when they are near or in the act of voting.

ii) vote on behalf of another student

iii) Interfere with another candidate's materials, publicity, online media, social networking site etc

iv) attempt to impede the election

v) attempt to influence the impartiality of the Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer or Students' Union staff

vi) misrepresent another candidate's views or make claims about themselves or any other candidate that are untrue.

vii) hand voters an electronic device for the purpose of voting or request that voters take out their own electronic device in order to vote immediately.

viii) bring the election process, the Students' Union or the University into disrepute.

13. Candidates and campaigners must:

i) Uphold the letter and spirit of the election rules and the students' union equal opportunities, zero tolerance to harassment and policies at all times.

ii) Follow the laws and regulations of both the land and the University at all times.

Budget

14. For Full Time Officers elections, the campaign budgets will be £50 (refunded by Solent SU on appropriate submission of receipts). You can also use £25 of your own money which Solent SU will not refund. This amount may not be exceeded.

15. For the Part Time Officers election, the campaign budgets will be £20 (refunded by Solent SU on appropriate submission of receipts). You can also use £10 of your own money which Solent SU will not refund. This amount may not be exceeded.

16. All campaigners must submit a written list of all campaign costs with corresponding receipts to the Deputy Returning Officer. All materials used by a campaigner must be included within their statement of expenditure alongside receipts or a pre-agreed valuation made by the DRO.

17. The following items are readily available to all candidates and their supporters and so their fair use does not carry a cash value: stationary, and cardboard, string, bedsheet, up to 3 T-shirts, art supplies and any consumer electronics. All other campaign materials will need to be declared to the Deputy Returning Officer by the specified time.

NOTE: This rule has been included to assist candidates in making election time exciting, vibrant and high profile. The returning officer and their deputy are aware that this rule may be open to abuse and will be closely monitoring campaign resources as a result. Please remember that they are the people who determine 'fair use'.

18. All items not purchased but used for campaign purposes must be valued by the Deputy Returning officer, with the exception of the list above and any activity group equipment.

19. The deadline to submit details of campaign costs will be set by the Deputy Returning Officer at the beginning of the nomination period. If a candidate does not spend any money during the course of their campaign this must be made clear on the submission. All candidates are required to submit their costs by the set deadline.

20. All campaigners must adhere to the rules of behaviour on any Solent SU or university premises.

Election Manifesto

21. Each candidate is advised to produce an election pledges. This is your chance to sell yourself and your ideas to the voters.

22. There can be a maximum of 100 words on your pledges.
- If a candidate does not submit a set of pledges or media by the submission deadline (9th March 10am), they will not be entered as a candidate.

23. To help publicise voting times, all manifestos and publicity must contain the following statement:

Voting links are sent to your student emails, to vote just click on the link between the 11th March at 10am and 15th March at 3pm. For queries e-mail elections@solent.ac.uk

24. The manifesto must be submitted in high resolution as an image file.
Election Publicity & Campaigning

25. Each candidate can request to have;

40 A4 sheets worth of printed publicity (no more than 3 designs / sizes)

Each candidate must request the Students' Union to print these by no later than the 18th February at 5pm. Each candidate can request less than the allocated 40 sheets.

Candidates can request to have A0 printed by the SU as an addition at the cost of £5, which will be taken from your candidate budget.

26. Printing must be done by Students' Union staff, and you may not purchase extra paper or produce your own publicity. Timetable for submitting publicity text and designs to the Students' Union will be covered in the candidates' briefings.

27. Candidates may not have Solent alumni or NUS national officers as a part of their campaign teams.

External Organisations

28. Any promotional opportunities offered by an external organisation must be available to all candidates in the election and approved by the Deputy Returning Officer.

Count and Announcement

29. The count shall be supervised by the Returning Officer or their nominee.

30. The results of Union voting will only come into effect once the Returning Officer has certified that the result is the accurate outcome of a free and fair democratic procedure.

31. The results will be posted on the Union website within 24 hours of the count being verified, and may be announced to students using another method as decided by the Returning Officer.

Candidates have the opportunity to view the count to ensure it is conducted fairly and in accordance with the rules.

Complaints and appeals

32. All complaints made about candidates, campaigners, election officials or the voting process should be submitted in writing to elections@solent.ac.uk. Only complaints submitted in writing will be considered. The complaint must highlight the election rule that has been broken, provide evidence of the breach and suggest a reasonable course of action to be taken.

33. The DRO or their nominated deputy will investigate complaints and refer matters to the RO for decision.

34. In the first instance, the Deputy Returning Officer will consider a complaint and make a ruling within 24 hours. If it is deemed to be a serious matter the Deputy Returning Officer may refer it immediately to the Returning Officer for consideration.

35. Complaints regarding the conduct of the Deputy Returning Officer should be made in writing directly to the Returning Officer.

36. Complaints have to be submitted by the beginning of the election count. Only complaints about the process of the count itself will be considered once the count has started, which must be submitted within 24 hours of the results being declared.

37. The sanctions available to the Deputy Returning Officer are:

- i) Warning a candidate of their future conduct.
- ii) Taking steps to level the playing field to right an election regulation breach.
- iii) Fining a candidate through either reducing the amount of money they may spend, or by confiscating printed publicity material.
- iv) Prohibiting a candidate and their campaigners from campaigning for a period of time (up to 24 hours).
- v) Banning a campaigner from the rest of the campaign (where the campaigner is not the candidate).

38. In addition to all of the above sanctions, the following are available to the Returning Officer:

- i) Suspending a candidate from the election pending an investigation.
- ii) Suspending the election process pending an investigation.

- iii) Recommending to the elections committee that a candidate be disqualified.
- iv) Recommending to the elections committee, that the election be re-run or a vote annulled.

39. Candidates may appeal against decisions made by the Returning Officer and their Deputy by submitting their appeal in writing, within 24 hours of the decision being made, following the appeal procedure detailed below:

- i) First stage appeal is heard by the Returning Officer; if the candidate remains dissatisfied then,
- iii) Final stage appeal is to the University Deputy Vice-Chancellor, or their nominated deputy.

For more information on our elections, please visit: www.solentsu.co.uk/elections

solent
students'
union

ELECTIONS

YOU READ THE WHOLE THING? LOOK AT
YOU GO!

